

CRT REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN

The 3rd Annual Culturally Responsive Teaching Conference

Courageous Classrooms

Friday, November 4, and
Saturday, November 5, 2016

CCBC Essex,
7201 Rossville Boulevard, Baltimore, MD 21237

Plan now to join us for a vibrant, informative discussion around Culturally Responsive Teaching and Learning

FEATURES:

Two conference keynotes, panels, workshops, student presentations

Keynote Speakers:

Dr. Pedro Noguera is the Distinguished Professor of Education in the Graduate School of Education and Information Sciences at UCLA. His scholarship and research focus on the ways in which schools are influenced by social and economic conditions.

Dr. Lisa Williams is Director of Equity and Cultural Proficiency for the Baltimore County Schools. She is the author of When Treating all the Kids the Same is the Real Problem (co-authored with Dr. Kendra Johnson, Esq.).

At the Community College of Baltimore County our highest concern is for the empowerment, engagement, validation and success of our students. From our vantage point as educators, one way that we help stimulate such agency is by setting goals for cultural responsiveness in every component at every level of our educational process.

At our third conference we will bring together educators from across the nation to share information, scholarship and best practices in culturally responsive teaching.

REGISTRATION FEES: (includes both days and meals)

$120 Prior to October 31st

$80 Presenter/Adjunct

$45 Students
