

Composting at UMBC

Composting involves breaking down organic waste to be reused by the environment.

Compostable

Fruit Peels

Soiled Paper & Napkins

Greasy Pizza Boxes & Uncoated Paper Plates

Food Scraps & Teabags
No liquids allowed

From the Commons:

- Fresh Fusions take-out containers, utensils, and soup containers
- Wild Greens salad containers and soup cups
- White and green Pepsi cups that are labeled compostable

Glass, Cans, Plastic Bottles

Glass Bottles & Jars

Aluminum Cans

Plastic Bottles & Containers

Aluminum Foil

Steel/Tin Cans

Lids can remain on all bottles, please rinse

Paper

Non-soiled Paperboard
(including cereal boxes)

Non-soiled Paper

Newspapers/Magazines

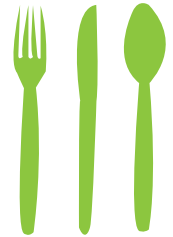

Paper bags, books

Landfill

Styrofoam

Plastic Utensils

Wrappers & Packets

Where can you recycle?

Most of UMBC's buildings have recycling bins.

Where can you compost?

The Commons.

ReSET

Retriever Sustainability Events Team

Our Mission

- Plan/Host events that raise awareness of UMBC's ever-evolving campus sustainability efforts
- Encourage campus organizations to implement events that support and raise awareness of campus sustainability programs and initiatives

Events

- Recyclemania Kick-off
- Recyclemania Parade
- E-cycling
- Green and Clean Rally
- Wear Green Wednesdays!
- RAC in Black

For more information about ReSET and our events, please visit our website:

→ <http://my.umbc.edu/groups/reset>