

Master's Program in Applied Sociology

SAS for Social Scientists

SOCY 418/618

Dr. Mair • M 7:10-9:40

This course introduces students to the basic principles of SAS, a widely used statistical software package. Students will learn data entry, data correction and validation, data analysis, combining data sets, rearranging data and macros.

Spring 2017