

LeadingOrgs at UMBC

A program of the Office of Student Life

Improve Your Student Organization by Improving Yourself

November 9 - 10, 2012

Applications Due October 26 on myUMBC

What is LeadingOrgs at UMBC?

A 2-day, overnight retreat off-campus for 30 student organization officers of any rank.

No cost to participants - Meals and buses provided.

What Will You Learn?

- Networking
- Group Decision Making
- Building Trusting Relationships
- Systems Thinking
- Engaging Group Members
- Group Communication
- Recruiting & Retaining Members
- Resources on Campus

Schedule Highlights

Friday, November 9th

- Load Bus at 3pm (transportation and meals are provided at no cost)
- Social Change Model of Leadership Development
  - Making decisions in groups
  - Engaging & empowering group members
  - Recruiting & retaining group members
  - Becoming a High Trust Leader
- High-energy Networking & Reflection

Saturday, November 10th

- Systems Thinking & finding your purpose in your community
- What Resources are Available to You?
- Workshop Options Include:
  - Developing group goals & a group vision
  - Navigating SGA & the SGA Finance Board
  - Building Partnerships around Campus & in the Community
  - Time-Management & Your Work-School-Life Balance
- Case Competition (building campus culture)
- Personal Leadership Learning (who do you want to become?)
- Board Buses Back to Campus by 6:30pm

Applications

Due Oct. 26. More info at <http://my.umbc.edu/groups/lc>

Any UMBC student with a student organization position (any rank) may apply. Please limit applications to only two people per org.

TRY SOMETHING NEW
UMBC Office of Student Life