

Women's Center Co-Sponsorship Rubric for Criteria

For best consideration, please review the criteria the Women's Center is looking for your student organization or department to meet in order for us to be able to potentially co-sponsor your event or program.

Different levels of Co-Sponsorship

1. Co-sponsorship through social media marketing and/or fliers in WC
2. Co-sponsorship through the use of our name and logo
3. Co-sponsorship through Women's Center staffing support (if requested)*
4. Co-sponsorship through financial support

Criteria That Will Be Considered:

1. Event or Program values the mission of the Women's Center

- Supports the academic, professional, or personal potential of women
- Supports specific groups related to the Women's Center community
 - Mothers/Parents
 - Women in the LGBTQ community
 - Non-traditional, returning women students
 - Women of color
 - Survivors of interpersonal violence

2. Event or Program helps publicize the Women's Center and its services and resources

3. Event or Program shows the Women's Center's support for underrepresented identities and social groups; and connects with the intersection of gender

4. Event or Program touches on one or more of the following areas?

- Feminism
- Activism
- Social Justice
- Creates awareness related to privilege and/or oppression

5. Event or Program supports campus partners and collaboration
